

Attention FDA

5662 '00 MAR 22 AID:35

It came to my attention that the FDA is being asked to take away my right to sign a medical waiver before purchasing a hearing aid. Instead I would be forced to have a medical exam or hearing test. Here's my views and/or experiences on several related questions? I have purchsed three hearing aids by mail my last 5 yrs all have been what they where advertized to be

1. Should I be forced to have a medical exam and/or hearing test before purchasing a hearing aid? If so, should the FDA pay for the exam? no problems

I know when I can hear dont need no Exam.

2. Some people are physically unable to drive to a doctor or hearing specialist, or have had bad experiences they don't want to repeat. For instance ... Some of older members of family dont want to go to doctors for every little thing

3. Should the FDA take away my Constitutional Right, affirmed by the Supreme Court, to decide for myself my medical exams and treatment?

F.D.A has no right to take my Constitutional right to decide for myself.

4. Should I be allowed to purchase hearing aids by mail as I choose?

If F.D.A wants to force me to doctor for hearing Test and hearing aids. Then They should foot the bill and Pay all expenses
